

Sept. 21, 1970

Dear Harry and Eva,

At long last here is an exact copy of the material Harry wanted re: the family coat of arms. I proof read it with myself.

How I did enjoy your visit the other day--it was just too short. Come again soon, please.

Thought you might enjoy this article regarding the Rev. Samuel Woodfin, the father of our clan of the Woodfin family. He was, as indicated by this article somewhat eccentric, and perhaps that is where the Woodfins get their whimsical qualities, but do you know, I think our peculiarities are the richness of our characters. I prize this article or eulogy which is on record in the Library of Congress in Washington. This is an exact copy.

Do come again soon.

Love, Samuel Woodfin

I thought you might also prize a copy of these other enclosures. One, a copy of his honorable discharge from the War Between the States, the other acceptance of the same by the Confederate Memorial Literary Society (The Confederate Museum) in Richmond, Virginia.
